DANGER OF GOING TOO FAR.
The contest over the nomination for Governor promises to be a very hard one. There will be a powerful pressure, direct from the people, brought to bear against the renomination of Governor Kinkaid, and at the same time his supporters will undoubtedly make every possible effort to force him in. It will be no walk-over for any one, and the members of the Convention should not be put in the position of tearing the party to pieces to secure a place on the ticket for any man. No one can claim a place by right. Efficiency should be the only standard of qualification.

A decision of considerable importance to farmers and hired help was rendered by the Supreme Court of New Jersey the other day in the case of Mather vs. Brokaw. Mather contracted to render service to Brokaw for a certain period, but before the expiration of the time agreed upon left his employment without any good cause. Being refused wages for the work done, he sued for them, but the court decided that the employee could not recover for the work which he had done under the contract, for, having broken the contract, he could not maintain an action under it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Between the Turks and Greeks they managed to kill about 500 persons during their recent difficulty.

The Placer Herald, at Auburn, is printed on the first press that came to California—thirty-one years ago.

The Fifth Missouri Congressional District Greenbackers have tacitly endorsed Col. T. Crisp, Independent Democratic candidate, by refusing to make a nomination.

Mr. Eckfeldt, of the United States Mint Bureau, is on his way to Carson City from Washington to investigate the charges made against Superintendent Crawford of the Carson Mint, by a discharged employee.

Dewett C. Rush, retiring City Treasurer of South Bend, Ind., fled a week ago, leaving a deficit of from $15,000 to $40,000. He lived very economically, but used money in politics and to aid his friends.

Those agitating the whereabouts of the Irish skirmishing fund have appointed a permanent Committee of Investigation, the other committee not having received any satisfactory accounting from the trustees.

In organizing the Democratic State Committee of Ohio it was understood that each member was to control the funds disbursed in his district, but Chairman Thompson seized upon a few thousand dollars for use of the committee at headquarters, and now other members refuse to have anything to do with the campaign.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

A Methodical Suicide.
SAN FRANCISCO, September 4.
The mangled remains of a German named Henry Klompf, aged 51 years, were found yesterday near Golden Gate Park, lying in a thick clump of brush. The body was mangled in a most horrible manner, pieces of flesh being scattered for some yards around. There was every indication that it was a most deliberate case of suicide, and that death had been caused by a number of giant-powder cartridges. These explosives had been carefully placed by Klompf about his person and ignited by means of a fuse. Two bottles labelled "Poison" were found near the body, one of which was partly empty.

An Expensive Fire.
SAN FRANCISCO, September 4.
A Chico dispatch says the Chico Hotel, Armory Hall and a few small cottages were burned yesterday. Loss about $80,000.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

The Yellow Fever.
MATAMORAS, September 3.
The epidemic is slowly on the decrease to-day. The weather is cool and cloudy, which helps the decrease of fever. There were a small number of new cases during the day ending at 9 p. m., and only eight deaths in the city.

Brownsville, September 3.
The fever is reported very bad at San Fernando. The official report at Brownsville shows 103 new cases and five deaths. There are 30 cases of fever at Point Isabel and five or six deaths so far. Most of the cases are light. There were two or three cases yesterday.

WASHINGTON, September 3.
A summary of the progress of yellow fever for the week which ended Saturday at Brownsville is furnished by the Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital service, and gives the following figures: For the week there were 482 cases and 28 deaths. Surgeon Murray of the Marine Hospital service arrived at Brownsville August 27 with assistants, nurses and supplies. He immediately organized a hospital for 60 patients. One of the assistants was detailed to Point Isabel, where some cases are reported. The outer cordon, extending from Laredo to Corpus Christi, has been strengthened during the week and a protective cordon established 30 miles from Brownsville, extending from Santa Maria on the Rio Grande to the mouth of Arroyo Colorado. No known cases of fever exist north of Arroyo Colorado at this date, nor have any refugees escaped quarantine at the outer cordon. Two cases of yellow fever left Brownsville for the North before the cordon was formed, but were stopped and detained by the guard. They subsequently died south of the cordon. Great destruction exists in Brownsville. The Mayor is about to issue another appeal for aid. Many of the poor decline to go to the hospital. The population of Brownsville at the beginning of the epidemic was 5,000.

Brownsville, Sept. 3.
The fever continues to increase. For the 24 hours ending at 10 o'clock this morning there were 70 new cases and four deaths. Since then Henry Pollack, a prominent merchant, died. The weather is cold and damp, with some rains at intervals. The outlook is not favorable.

Pensacola, Fla., September 3.
No new cases are reported, and no deaths during the past 24 hours. Two cases reported had black vomit, and recovery is improbable.

Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, September 3.
Lars Ecklund and Oscar Anderson are brothers-in-law employed in an iron foundry in this city. Saturday night they left the city for South Evanston, 12 miles north, to spend the night with another brother-in-law named Rand. A quarrel over some unknown cause arose and they got off the train at Rodgers Park. At 11 o'clock at night Anderson appeared at Rand's alone and returned and retired at six o'clock this morning. Rand, hearing a shot in the basement, went down and found Anderson with a bullet wound in his breast. Anderson confessed he murdered Ecklund the night before. Rand and Anderson went to the Police station. The former went in to tell the story; when he came out Anderson was gone. Late this afternoon his body was found hanging from a tree on the lake shore. His clothes were wet, showing a previous attempt at drowning, and strips of cloth strewn about showed that Anderson had made one or two futile attempts to hang himself before he got strips torn from a pair of overalls strong enough to hold his weight. In the meantime the body of Ecklund was found at Rodgers park with three bullet wounds in it.

A Good Move.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 3.
The Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court for West Virginia at Parkersburg yesterday brought in a presentment of manslaughter against Inspector Young for granting a permit to the steamer Scioto to carry more passengers than authorized by law. Also, against David Keller, pilot of the Scioto, and Captain Ingelbright and pilot Long of Lomas.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

EGYPT'S TROUBLES.
ALEXANDRIA, September 3.
English soldiers at Meks are suffering from diarrhea and dysentery caused by bad water in the forts. Bedouins continue entrenching their position on the Aboukir side of Alexandria, in close proximity to the British outposts. The Khedive has given the British the necessary permission to cut the dykes at Meks, thus inundating Mariout lake and preventing the attack of the enemy from that side. Experts who have been consulted feel satisfied that the operation will not interfere with lands under cultivation in the Behrea provinces.

Colonel Solahad, the new Russian Consul-General, arrived to-day and had an audience with the Khedive. He proceeds to Ismalia to-morrow.
Advices from Cairo report that great anxiety is felt there lest the prefect of police be unable to maintain order. Despite his unceasing effort the populace continue to menace the few remaining Europeans and threaten wholesale plunder.

LONDON, Sept. 3.
Wolsey telegraphs from Ismalia that the troops are in high spirits and eager to be led forward. Supplies at the front are ample.

PARIS, Sept. 3.
De Lesseps, speaking to-day to a deputation of friends, said he had been described as the enemy of England and the friend of Arabi Pasha, but he was simply the friend and defender of the work of civilization. He said Arabi Pasha's honorable conduct in regard to the Suez canal ought to be acknowledged.

ALEXANDRIA, September 3.
There is a failure of the water supply, owing to the falling in of some ruins by which the water main was injured. The usual amount of water will be supplied to-morrow.

To-day three Europeans went on a boating excursion and landed near Fort Dakieh, westward of Meks. Three shells were fired at them and one excursionist and one of the crew—a native—was wounded. Officers of the British man-of-war Bittern observed the incident and ordered a boat lowered and sent to receive the party.

ALEXANDRIA, September 3.
Yesterday an alarm was given that the enemy were advancing across Lake Merout. Sailors and marines were landed to repel them, but the report proved false.

The waterworks did not give the promised supply to-day.
LONDON, September 3.
It is stated that General Wolsey has telegraphed the authorities that it is unnecessary to prepare the Third Army Corps, as he only requires a few reinforcements to fill up gaps.

ISMALIA, September 3.
Emissaries of Sultan Pasha are doing their utmost to inform the people of Damietta that those who lay down their arms will be leniently treated.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 3.
The British position here is so formidable that it is hoped Arabi Pasha may test his strength against it.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 3.
Said Pasha proposed to Lord Dufferin to-day that the Turkish troops be allowed to disembark at Port Said instead of Aboukir. Lord Dufferin telegraphed Lord Granville relative to the proposal. It is understood that Hobart Pasha, chief of the Turkish admiralty staff, pointed out to the Porte and Lord Dufferin the impossibility of disembarkation at Aboukir, Rosetta or Damietta. Lord Dufferin informed the Porte that the loyal authorities at Beyrout still prevent the importation of mules for the British army.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 3.
Mahmoud Fahmy is kept in a miserable room and strictly guarded. It is stated that his custodian gave him only sea-water to drink on the first day of his imprisonment, saying: "You tried to make us drink salt water by stopping up the Sweetwater canal." Recent observations show seven distinct lines of defense between Arabi's front and Damashour.

DUBLIN, Sept. 4.
The crowds have dispersed and the streets are quiet. The soldiers have withdrawn. The memorial from the dismissed policemen, asking for reinstatement, is being signed by 197 of the 234 dismissed men.

A miscreant to-night placed a dirty tin box on the head of the bronze statue of King William III, and the windows of the College Green telegraph station have been broken. H. B. M. gunboat Forester lies at the Custom-house dock, not far from Sackville street.

The Dublin Police Troubles.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.
The police strike is virtually ended. The superintendent, in an interview with the dismissed men, advised them to draw a memorial asking that they be reinstated, and acknowledging that they have committed a breach of discipline. This memorial will be submitted to the authorities this evening, and there is little doubt that the men will be reinstated, with the understanding that their grievances will be investigated. Several street robberies were committed last evening. The wounds of several parties injured in street melees were dressed at the hospital, but no injuries of a serious nature are reported. About fourteen persons wounded in street fights are in the hospital. Five hundred special constables were sworn in to-day. The mob to-day attacked a special constable. The latter fired three shots and wounded a man dangerously. The mob thereupon attempted to lynch the constable and handled him so roughly that he is not expected to recover. To-night the mob became very violent and was charged on by the troops. Several persons were wounded.

England the Ally of France.

PARIS, September 3.
The Temps, in an article on the Egyptian question, maintains that the French expedition is a benefit to France, even more than England. It says: "The awakening of the power of England proves that Europe is not under the leadership of one power—Germany. This circumstance will benefit none so much as France, which is the natural ally of England."

An Irishman With an Illuminated Address.
LONDON, September 3.
A. M. Sullivan, late Member of Parliament, and family, sailed for New York to-day. Sullivan will lecture in the principal cities on the condition of Ireland. He has with him an illuminated address to the Mayor of Chicago from members of the Irish Parliamentary party.

Hazel Kike will be in Reno Sept. 27th with the original company.

Manning & Berry have an important notice in the 50 cent column.

The public school commenced this morning. Mr. Carr is the new principal.

Hall's cast-iron nigger on engine 213 is to have a new suit of winter clothes.

Genuine briar root pipes at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—62, 72, 78, 80, 80.

George Becker has painted and papered his saloon. It is one of the prettiest rooms in town.

Old Lige propounds this conundrum: What is the difference between a candidate and a reprobate?

Sixty emigrants went west last night, a great portion being females. There seems to be a great rush of females to the coast just now.

Forest fires are raging in the hills to the north of Boca, and considerable valuable timber is being destroyed. That's where all the smoke comes from.

"Dusty Bob" sold his setter dog to Jim Wilson yesterday for $100. The valuable cur will be sent to Canada next Wednesday, to track the Fenian invaders.

The town is full of strangers and lodgings are scarce; but there is plenty of good grub, and every one that is acquainted with a candidate can get a square meal.

Will Gillespie seems to have carried ill-luck with him, in his new situation at Chico. He went there to clerk in a hotel, and the house was burned down the first night, which looks rather dark for Will.

Evans' free bar at the Arcade and Strother's layout at the Palace sort of disarranged the drinking business in those localities. Cigars and drinks were ladled out without stint yesterday, and many a thirsty stranger got his carotch box filled.

The shooting match at the range yesterday between Stoddard and Dusan for $20 a side, was won easily by Stoddard, with a score of 41 to 32. Dusan, however, partially redeemed himself after the match by cutting a hell-diver in two, sitting on the water at a long distance.

The Wine House, with old Phil behind the bar, is a most attractive place. Steer yourself in there and get one of Phil's coolers, or liver-agitators. He likes to do things up in good shape, and takes as much pleasure in seeing a customer relish a drink as if he were doing the drinking himself.

Tug Wilson and James Elliott have signed articles to fight for $5,000 and the championship of the world in January next, while J. K. Everett has got to the front as the champion grocer of Nevada. When it comes to selling goods cheap, he is on top of the heap.

Candidates are making a grand rush for the White House. They see the folly of running for office in a shabby suit of clothes. The "dark horse" for Governor got a fashionable outfit there to-day, and bets are being made that his stylish clothes will get him the nomination.

W. J. Primrose the Ruby Hill constable who was shot through and through on the Fourth of July, is a delegate to the Convention, and seems to be as good as new, though he still carries the lead in him.

Col. Shaw of the Enterprise, Mack Glenn of the Emeralds, Sam. P. Davis of the Appeal, J. M. Dornier of the True Future and R. R. Parkinson of the Tribune, favored the Gazette office with a call to-day.

General S. H. Mariette is a candidate for Surveyor General. He was Surveyor General of California in 1854-5 and of Nevada from 1864 to 1869. He is a thoroughly-trained engineer, and a worthy and reliable gentleman.

Buy Yourself Rich.

The Convention has no effect on F. Levy & Bro.'s grand clearance sale, now going on. Their store has been crowded with ladies all day, taking advantage of the exceedingly low prices. The stock must be disposed of this week, and everyone in need of dry goods can make money by availing themselves of Levy Bro.'s offer.

Fire at Lake Tahoe.

It was reported this afternoon that 8,000 cords of Mariette & Folsom's wood at Lake Tahoe was on fire. The Gazette could not get any particulars.

THE CONVENTION.

IT IS CALLED TO ORDER, COMMITTEES APPOINTED AND ADJOURNS.

A High-toned, Earnest Body of Gentlemen who are Working Only for the Good of their Party and State.

The Convention met at noon to-day in the Nevada Theater, which had been elaborately and artistically decorated by the efforts of Hon. C. S. Varian and J. S. Shoemaker, members of the State Central Committee. At the rear of the stage Laycock's immense picture of Garfield is hung with black and white rosettes at the corners and the National flag above it. On the right is a fine picture of Lincoln, and on the left one of Washington. McClellan's oil painting of Garfield stands in front of the gallery rail at the rear of the hall. The gallery and boxes are hung with flags and red, white and blue bunting. As the members assembled the Reno band played stirring airs outside the door. Promptly at 12 o'clock chairman I. L. Requa called the convention to order.

W. W. Bishop was chosen temporary chairman. He made a speech, saying that the Convention had assembled to select the best possible ticket to be voted on in November. It was unlike any Convention ever assembled, in that it is an unpledged Convention. He referred to the history of the party in an eloquent manner, saying: "We have the history of the past and the hopes of the future to answer those who say there is nothing to talk about and nothing between the parties."

Wm. Sutherland of Virginia and John F. Alexander of Reno were nominated for Secretary. Mr. Sutherland had a large majority. W. Hy. Doane of Esmeralda and W. L. Bechtel of Reno were chosen Assistant Secretaries. E. L. Bridges of Washoe, M. Bartlett of Storey, Kelly of Storey and Lamb of Washoe, were nominated for Sergeant-at-Arms. A. K. Lamb was in the majority.

W. R. King moved that a committee on credentials be named, and that one by each delegation be appointed. Carried.

Mr. Hobart moved that the Chair appoint a committee of seven on order of business and rules. Mr. Stevenson moved that each county select a member to form such a committee. Mr. Hobart withdrew his motion. Mr. King moved that one from each county be a committee on resolutions and platform. Judge T. H. Wells moved that the chair appoint a committee of seven. Mr. Cleveland favored the motion because some counties only had one or two members and some had proxies. Varian and King insisted that each county should have a voice on the platform. The original resolution was carried.

Nevada Beats the World.

Last night when the Virginia & Truckee train arrived, Chamberlain was on hand, as usual, to assist the lady passengers to alight. The first lady had a baby in her arms, and the next one was similarly freighted, and so the procession continued until 21 babies were congregated in the waiting room. Then Chamberlain ejaculated: "God-damn it! I'm creeping along with twins directly." And sure enough, the next one to alight had two babies in her arms.

A Five Machine.

Hank Rhodes says engine No. 1 is the brightest and best little steamer that ever squeaked a cogwheel. Last Saturday it threw a stream, with an inch and a quarter nozzle, 250 feet, through 500 feet of hose, and afterward, with the same nozzle, laid a streak of water 210 feet through 1,000 feet of hose. With 36 pounds of steam it can throw water to a distance of 180 feet, while it can safely carry 150 pounds pressure.

No Town Hall for Boom.

The Boacites have given up the idea of building a town hall, for the present, at least. Five hundred dollars for the purpose was raised by entertainments and subscriptions, but the cost of such a building as would be required would be in the neighborhood of $1,200, and the tax was considered too onerous and the project was abandoned. The money on hand will be devoted to some charitable or sanitary purpose.

Just Like Home.

It would be difficult to find a more genial trio of men than Frank Perkins, Al White and Jack Fitzgerald of the Palace. Each one fits his individual groove to a dot. Frank does the general stunner business; Al conbustates with the guests and makes them feel perfectly at home, while Jack dispenses the inspiration. Together they manage to make their guests feel as if they were raised in the house.

DEMAND AND SUPPLY.

The San Francisco Post has an interesting column on the coast's supply of beef. Before the discovery of gold in California, and its consequent peopling by Americans, the territory now constituting the State was almost exclusively a pastoral region, having no other resource or industry of importance than stockraising. The Jesuit fathers had taught the natives something of agriculture, vinegrowing and winemaking, but the products of these industries were only in proportion to the demands of the limited population, while cattle and sheep were the main element of wealth and of trade. Cattle and sheep were not bred as food animals, but the former for their hides, horns, hoofs and tallow, and the latter for wool, pelts and tallow, which were the principal articles of commerce, and for which ships traded between California and Eastern and European ports. The cattle were inferior in quality, being of the breed commonly known as "mustang," and, which, after generations of freedom from human restraint, had become almost wild animals.

California cannot now be classed as one of the cattle States, being an importer instead of an exporter. It is but a few days since that a ship discharged at a wharf in San Francisco a cargo of hides from South America. The greater portion of the beef cattle to supply the California market at present is drawn from Nevada and Oregon.

The Mormons were the first to discover the virtues of the bunch grass and white sage of the great basin as food for stock. The bunch grass sprouts rank and green as soon as the snow is off the ground, and frequently the cattle paw off the snow and find the grass growing green underneath. But it is towards the Fall of the year that the bunch grass is at its best. It then furnishes a sweet, rich seed which the cattle devour eagerly and make of themselves Christmas beef, which for fatness, juiciness, tenderness and flavor cannot be surpassed by the best stall-fed article and is far superior to the average of stall-fed beef.

The winter food was the white sage, which grew in the valleys, but there was not enough of it to keep so many animals in fair condition, and the hungry beasts would munch the shrub down as far as they could push their noses into the earth. The white sage is a small shrub, seldom growing over six inches in height. It is a grayish-green in color in Spring and Summer, but on being touched by frost, turns to a light gray, and the leaves have a velvety feel. Before being frosted it is bitter, and cattle will not touch it, but, after the frost has struck it, it becomes sweetish, and all kinds of live stock eat it with avidity. Where it is plentiful cattle will remain sleek during the entire winter.

WHEN THE GRAZING POSSIBILITIES OF NEVADA BECAME KNOWN.

There was a grand rush in the cattle business. The limited home market, lack of transportation facilities, high taxes and interest, and losses of stock by starvation, soon drove many of the stock men to the wall, but those who weathered the storm waxed exceedingly rich. The building of the Central Pacific railroad, the increase of population in California, and the falling off in the production of cattle in this State, created a profitable market for Nevada cattle, but at no time has the business in that State been so profitable as during the present year.

The Eastern and European market has drawn largely on the herds of Wyoming, Nebraska, Dakota and Montana. Nevada has been scoured from one end to the other by buyers from the East, who have bought up everything in the shape of bovines, from new-dropped calves to steers that crossed the plains in '49. The prices offered are so high that stock breeders have parted with a large share of their stock cattle, and the ranges are almost depopulated.

OTHER CATTLE SECTIONS.

The conditions for stockraising in Idaho, Oregon, Utah, Montana, Washington, Wyoming, Dakota and Nebraska—all of which furnish large supplies of cattle for the Eastern and European markets—are somewhat similar to those of Nevada. With the exception of eastern Oregon, Washington Territory, eastern Montana and a portion of Nebraska, the feed is the same, and the only climatic difference is that the winters in Nevada and Utah are somewhat milder than in the others. Large fortunes have been made in all these States and Territories in cattle breeding. This is particularly the case in Montana, where nearly everybody is interested in cattle, and where there are a number of cattle kings who commenced in a small way less than 15 years ago. Montana is destined, with the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad, to be a greater cattle region than it is even now, but the winters are very severe, and in an exceptionally hard winter the percentage of loss is great.

In the Spring of 1881 the track of the Union Pacific railroad, from Cheyenne to Omaha, was lined as far as the eye could reach with the carcasses of cattle which had died of starvation. The number was inestimable, but a rough guess placed the loss of cattle in Wyoming and Nebraska at 12 per cent. It was computed for that year at about 8 per cent. for Montana. The dead cattle were not a total loss, however. In the Spring the hides, hoofs and horns were gathered and the oleomargarine men from Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha were out in force buying up the "grease" for conversion into railroad station and Chicago hotel butter.

THE GREATEST CATTLE STATE.

In the Union is Texas. The census of 1880 gives the number of cattle in Texas at 4,073,240, but the census of 1880 is ridiculously incorrect in the matter of the number of cattle in the far Western States and Territories, and the number in Texas may be more or less. That State, however, possesses exceptional advantages as a cattle-breeding region, the climate being mild and equable, and the feed all most perennial. With the exception of California, all the States and Territories mentioned in this article were stocked mainly with Texas cattle, which are of the mustang order, broad-horned, fiery-eyed and wild as hares; but they make good enough beef when fat, and many a joint from a bronco Texas steer is sold to-day in London as prime English beef, and eaten by the English with as much gusto as if it was really what it purport to be.

THE SECRETARYSHIP.

What the Present Incumbent's Friends Claim.

Secretary of State Babcock, who is a candidate for re-election, drew the records on a GAZETTE reporter this morning to prove that he was misunderstood and misrepresented by a portion of the opinion-makers of the State. The work of his office has been done promptly and efficiently, and the statutes published 60 days earlier than they ever were before, without any additional expense to the taxpayers. The actual cost of running the office has been less by four thousand dollars, for the last four years, than during any previous four years in the history of the State. The office has always been open to everyone, and all who had business relations with it can certify that they have been treated courteously and politely. Mr. Babcock is an old-time Republican, and as all his predecessors have served two terms he thinks he is entitled to the same treatment. His name will be presented before the Convention for the office.

Truckee Items.

[From the Republican of Sept. 2.] The public school of Boca is now in charge of Mr. D. Ogilvie, formerly of Truckee.

The new freight depot at Boca is rapidly nearing completion and is one of the neatest structures of the kind on the line of the road.

Immense quantities of freight are now being unloaded at the depot here and shipped to Sierra valley, Plumas, Eureka Mills and Lake Tahoe.

On Thursday the Superior Court, by an order made, settled the final account of M. Garver, assignee of the Banner Mill and Lumber Co., and directed him to disburse all moneys in his hands to the creditors. Mr. Garver is thus enabled to declare a dividend of 38 per cent., which he is now ready to pay.

Well Satisfied.

The Appeal says the nomination of General T. D. Edwards for the District Judgeship is a good one in all respects. It not only insures an honest and capable Judge for the Bench of Ormsby and Douglas, but will give the voters of that section a chance to show how well they can appreciate so good and consistent a Republican. The nomination harmonizes all threatened differences and gives satisfaction on all sides.

Light and Heavy.

Johnny Warren of Virginia is the lightest delegate to the Convention, and Phillip Blewett of Ruby Hill is the most ponderous. The former weighs about 100 pounds, and Blewett tips up 270, and he grows because Warren's vote counts as much as his. The monstrosity from Ruby wants to sit down upon some candidate.

A Cattle Drive.

Messrs. Simpson and Hudson, stock men from Smith's valley, left Reno this morning for Oregon. There were five men in the party, armed and equipped with camping outfit, besides fourteen saddle-horses. They go to drive six hundred head of cattle, already purchased, and will be absent about six weeks.

There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness.
